

Hello!

From Kalamazoo Christian Schools

Kalamazoo Christian High School is a comprehensive four-year high school enrolling an average of 250 students, grades 9-12. Kalamazoo Christian High is accredited by the North Central Association of Secondary Schools and Christian Schools International. At KCHS, we value the educational benefits of diverse global influences and cultural understanding in our private Christian school community. For our current students and families, the addition of International students to Kalamazoo Christian High School results in an increased cultural awareness and world perspective. Meanwhile, our international students benefit from the high-quality, Christ-centered high school education for which KCHS is recognized. Our international students are able to develop academically and spiritually with the support and encouragement of their host family and school community. Kalamazoo is located halfway between Detroit and Chicago and is home to Western Michigan University and Kalamazoo College, as well as Kalamazoo Valley Community College. Entertainment, cultural experiences, a thriving downtown, museums, ski resorts, sports venues and more are what draw people to Kalamazoo.
